Woodland Heights Medical Center welcomes Hunter Looney, M.D., back home

Lufkin, TX (August 1, 2011) – Woodland Heights Medical Center is happy to welcome Hunter Looney, M.D., back home to Lufkin. A Family Practice Physician, Dr. Looney is dedicated to personalized family care.

“I am very excited to be back in Lufkin and to be part of the Woodland Heights team,” said Looney. “I am thrilled to have this unique opportunity to serve the people and community in which I grew up. It is a dream come true for me to be a small town, family physician.”

Dr. Looney earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Georgia and his medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia after studying at Oxford University in England. He recently completed his family medicine residency at San Jacinto Methodist Hospital in Baytown where he served as chief resident and will be opening Woodland Heights Family Practice at Gaslight.

“Dr. Looney will be a great addition to the medical staff,” states Casey Robertson, CEO of Woodland Heights. “We are happy he has chosen to come back to Lufkin to begin his private practice and look forward to working with him in providing quality patient care.”

Dr. Looney will open Woodland Heights Family Practice at Gaslight located at 410 Gaslight Blvd. in Lufkin. For more information or to make an appointment, call 936-639-2338.
